

An extension of research of Indian agricultural markets and competition issues

Key details

Location

India

Duration

Start May 2011

End Jul 2011

Budget

AUD 90,000

Commissioned organisation

Industry & Investment NSW

Partners

Infrastructure Development and Finance Company, India; La Trobe University, Australia; National Council of Applied Economic Research, India; University of Exeter, United Kingdom; University of Melbourne, Australia

Project Leader

Scott Davenport

Program

Agribusiness

Project code

ADP/2011/021

formation and competition issues, and it included analytical modelling and field research involving surveys and statistical analysis of market price data.

Project outcomes

- Provided insights into why onion prices have risen dramatically in recent times.

ACIAR

Overview

This project aimed to explain onion price rises and provide insights into the causes of food price inflation more generally.

The research was done from an agricultural policy perspective, focusing on market structure, price